Regal Ware Employees Approve 5-year Contract

Kewaskum, Wisconsin (Dec. 9, 2015) — Regal Ware management, Local 850 bargaining committee members and representatives from United Steel Workers International (USW) worked out a new 5-year labor agreement.

Employees ratified the 5-year agreement last month which provides solid market based salary increases in each of the five years of the contract for approximately 200 manufacturing members in the Wisconsin operations. The new agreement takes effect December 12, 2015.

"Our employees play an important role in ensuring the strength of our growing manufacturing operations and our ability to be responsive to our customers, and we appreciate their many contributions," said Jeff Reigle, Regal Ware President and CEO.

"We are pleased with the new contract and believe it is competitive while continuing to provide a stable production environment as we focus on managing the business internationally for growth and long-term success."
