Regal Ware Announces J.O. Reigle Scholarship Winners

Kewaskum, Wisconsin (April 5, 2010) – Elissa Miller and Karla Stoffel have been named recipients of J.O. Reigle Scholarships for 2010. Regal Ware's scholarship program was established in 1963 in honor of the housewares firm's founder, the late J.O. Reigle. The award recognizes the outstanding scholastic achievements of one or more graduating seniors at Kewaskum High School, and is designed to assist the recipients in their pursuit of a college education.

Elissa, daughter of Michael and Mary Miller of Kewaskum, plans to attend Marquette University this Fall to study psychology and physical therapy. She is a member of the National Honor Society, HOPE Club, KEY Club, student government, and pep club. Elissa volunteers in the Kewaskum community, and enjoys playing soccer, basketball, volleyball, and spending time with her family.

Karla is the daughter of Tim and Nancy Stoffel of Kewaskum. She plans to attend the University of Minnesota-Twin Cities, University of Wisconsin-Madison, or Carthage College this Fall, studying elementary education and music therapy. Her activities at Kewaskum High School include FFA, HOPE Club, National Honor Society, and pep club. She is a member of the Kewaskum Community Big Band, 4-H, and her church choir. In addition, Karla has served as a volunteer with Habitat for Humanity, Top of the Ridge Restaurant, and her church's vacation bible school.

To be eligible for the $18,000 J.O. Reigle Scholarship a student must have attended Kewaskum High School for at least the previous 2 years, and maintained at least a "B" average for the first 3½ years of high school. Each student will receive $4,500 per year for each of her 4-year college programs.
