Regal Ware Announces Recipient of 2019 Regal Ware Scholarship

Kewaskum, Wisconsin (July 8, 2019) – Jillian Herlinger, daughter of Chris and Laure Herlinger, has been awarded with an $8,000 ($2,000 per year for four years) scholarship through Regal Ware’s Scholarship Program.

Jillian will attend Calvin University in the fall, pursuing a degree in International Relations and Diplomacy. Through her impressive high school career, Jillian founded her high schools Model United Nations, was involved in jazz and marching band, and actively participated in her church. While in school Jillian also worked as a camp counselor, a cashier at Culvers, and as a barista at Fiddleheads. Her leisure time activities include hobby art, playing the bass, and teaching music lessons to 5th grade students.

All children who are graduating high school seniors of Regal Ware employee’s (excluding senior staff) who have been employed at Regal Ware for at least two years were eligible to apply. The student must have maintained a GPA above a 3.0. The scholarship recipient is decided on by an Awards committee comprised of professionals outside of Regal Ware.
